Festivals Around the World

A decorative border of colorful balloons (blue, pink, orange) with black strings, arranged in a rectangular frame around the text.

P.2_Festivals around the World

This is a post-exam activity. We show students some interesting festivals around the world. We also compare how people celebrate Christmas in Australia and Finland. Students create a new festival and write about it on their own.

Water Festival in Thailand

Water Festival is the traditional Thai New Year. It is a celebration that embraces goodwill, love, compassion, and thankfulness.

Tomato-throwing Festival in Columbia

Tomato-throwing festival is a festival for entertainment.

Fallas Festival in Spain

Fallas Festival is a party lasts for five days. It brings gigantic colorful characters out on the streets.

Fish Festival in Japan

Fish Festival is carp-shaped windsocks traditionally flown in Japan to celebrate Children's Day in Japan.

This is how people in Finland and Australia spend their Christmas time!

In Finland:
People go for a reindeer ride and visit Santa Claus at Christmas.

In Australia:

People go to the beach and play cricket at Christmas.

P.2 students do their booklets and watch videos during the lessons.
